BULLETIN
Athens, Greece, Oct. 31.—(P)—Greek troops were reported today to have counter-attacked north of the besieged town of Ioannina (Janina), and sources regarded as reliable said they had stormed and recaptured a hill. The Greeks, rushing the hill under heavy fire, were said to have seized large quantities of abandoned arms and equipment from the Italian invaders. The Ioannina sector, on the western frontier with Albania, still was the scene of the heaviest fighting of this 4-day-old war, but there had been little change in the line.

A Greek counter-attack north of the besieged town of Ioannina (Janina) was reported today to have thrown back invading Italian troops on the northwest front to-day, with Greek soldiers storming and recapturing a hill.

Dispatches from Athens, capital of Greece, said Greek warriors rushed the hill under heavy fire and seized big quantities of abandoned arms and equipment.

This was the first indication that the city of Ioannina, 30 miles inside the Greek frontier, was under siege.

Previously, the Italian High Command had reported only a five-mile thrust into that sector, reaching to the Kalamas river.

The heaviest fighting along the whole 100-mile front, much of the battle raging in torrential rains and mud, was reported in the Ioannina region.

Athens said there was little change in the line, with the Greek armies, reinforced by a steady flow of reservists, still well out in front of the main Metaxas line.

The Greeks were reported resisting the Italian invasion so successfully that Greece has decided she does not need Turkish help at least for the present.

By The Associated Press

Semi-official quarters in Ankara said Greece had informed the Turkish government that she can stem the Italian assault alone.

As a result, these quarters said, Turkey will enter the four-day-old Balkan struggle only "in case of a Bulgarian attack on Greece, or if Turkey's national interests are endangered."

Washington, Oct. 31.—(P)—The National Jewish Monthly said today there were no issues involving race or religion in next Tuesday's elections and that many members of the Jewish race would vote for each presidential candidate.

STUDENTS TO VOTE

Pittsburgh, Oct. 31.—(P)—Not only the grownups will vote next Tuesday. Pupils in many junior and senior high schools of Allegheny county will ballot for candidates for public office in "mock" elections held as lessons in citizenship. Because results of the student vote have been watched closely by political observers, they will not be announced until after the city polls have closed.

HELD FOR PATRICIDE

Greensburg, Oct. 31.—(P)—Frank Trassler, Jr., 26, was held by state motor police today on a charge of murder in the hammer slaying of his 59-year-old father. Officers brought the charge in an information filed before Alderman J. A. Walton after the elder Trassler died of a skull fracture and other injuries yesterday.

QUINTUPLETS RUMOR

Vichy, France, Oct. 31.—(P)—French newspapers reported today that a miner's wife at Lens, near Lille, had given birth to quintuplets—four boys and one girl. The girl was said to have died but the boys were reported doing well. The parents have three older children.

CONVICT THIRTY IN NOMINATING PETITIONS FRAUD

Pittsburgh, Oct. 31.—(P)—Thirty persons were convicted today of conspiracy and perjury in circulating Communist nominating petitions in Allegheny county last spring.

Four of the defendants in the trial—longest and largest of three such trials in western Pennsylvania—were also convicted of additional charges of false pretense. The trial began Sept. 30 with 32 defendants, but one was never apprehended and another became ill during the proceeding.

All were charged with conspiracy to violate election laws in circulating and filing the petitions and with perjury in connection with signing affidavits to the petitions.

More than 900 witnesses testified for the state, many claiming the petitions had been represented as protests against American entry into the European war and as pleas for more relief payments and jobs. Some witnesses whose names appeared on the petition said they had not signed them.

In similar trials in Beaver and Westmoreland counties, 10 persons were convicted of violating election laws by circulating the petitions there.

Sentence was not imposed immediately. After the verdict was read, George Powers, one of the defendants, charged in a written statement that the verdict "is not only a miscarriage of justice but is a blow at free elections and the bill of rights in Pennsylvania."

He asserted the trial and verdict was "part of a national conspiracy which originated at the White House to steal the Communist party vote."

Wife of Browder Is Ordered Deported By Justice Dept

Washington, Oct. 31.—(P)—The Justice Department today ordered deportation of Mrs. Raisa Berkman Browder, wife of Earl Browder, general secretary of the Communist party in the United States, on the ground that she had entered this country illegally.

The order signed by Attorney General Jackson also denied application for suspension of the deportation order on the ground that Mrs. Browder's "evasive testimony regarding her relationship to the Communist party had created doubt as to her eligibility for leniency."

Immigration officials said that Mrs. Browder, who is 42, would be given a "reasonable time" in which to present herself for deportation to her native Russia.

The period she will be permitted for winding up her affairs will be determined within a few days, it was said.

Mrs. Browder and her husband, the Communist party candidate for president, were married in Moscow in September, 1926, and have three sons. Two were born in the Russian capital. One was born in New York City in 1934. The family resides in Yonkers, N. Y.

SUICIDE CLOSES SHIPPENSBURG MURDER PROBE

Shippensburg, Oct. 31.—(P)—Investigation into the slaying of Harry J. Hoover, prosperous 65-year-old Cumberland county farmer, was closed today with District Attorney Ray D. Harrigan's announcement that a bank teller, charged with the murder, had committed suicide.

Harrigan's statement followed discovery of the body of Calvin E. Rebok, 46, in an automobile parked on a gun club's lonely grounds six miles from here, late yesterday.

Rebok, sought in distant cities since October 19—the day after Hoover was slain—had piped exhaust gases into a car bought in Davenport, Ia., last Thursday. (Turn to Page Seventeen)

PARTY LEADERS TO BE QUIZZED BY FEDERAL JURY

Philadelphia, Oct. 31.—(P)—A federal grand jury investigating alleged violations of election laws sent out subpoenas today to leaders of the Republican and Democratic parties in Pennsylvania in what a spokesman termed an "unprecedented" action.

Announcement of the move was made after Democratic National Chairman Edward J. Flynn told his press conference in New York yesterday that Republicans "intend to buy this election."

To appear November 7—summoned two days after election—are included Joseph P. Pew, Democratic State Chairman; Meredith Meyers; Jay Cooke, Republican candidate for the U. S. Senate and city chairman of Philadelphia; John E. Kelly, Philadelphia Democratic chairman; James F. Torrance, Republican state chairman; and Luther H. Harr, Democratic state campaign manager.

The jury also subpoenaed by title, treasurers of the city and state committees of both parties, the chairman and treasurer of the Willie clubs, the chairman and treasurer of the Democrats-for-Willkie organization, and the chairman and treasurer of the Republicans for Roosevelt.

All were asked to bring party records showing money on hand last May 1.

Pew termed Flynn's accusations "too ridiculous for comment" and said of the jury's action "I have not heard of it."

Both Myers and Harr said they "welcomed" an investigation.

State's Registration Exceeds 5,000,000, Largest In History As Both Parties Gain

Harrisburg, Oct. 31.—(P)—Pennsylvania has more than 5,000,000 persons registered for the November 3 election, highest number qualified to cast a ballot in the history of the state.

This represents approximately half the state's population. The record enrollment of 5,022,523 is the result of intense registration drives carried on by both Republicans and Democrats, eager to sign up the new voters who have just reached the age of 21, and to "get out" the ballots of those who customarily pass up a chance to vote.

The 5,022,523 total includes the latest figures when registration books closed for this election in 63 counties. Lackawanna and Luzerne did not supply figures later than a checkup taken early in the fall.

There were 4,916,346 registered for the 1936 election. Now, Republicans number 2,784,040. This is an increase of more than 200,000 over last April.

On the books are 2,171,011 Democrats, leaving this party's registered strength on about the same parity as in 1936. Then there were (Turn to Page Twelve)

LOTTERY LISTS ARE IN MAILS

Draft Director Dykstra Declares Last of Master Copies Have Been Dispatched to States As Army Corps Area Commanders Call for Initial Contingents of Men; Boards Prepare to Begin Actual Selection of 800,000 Trainees

IS NOT WORRIED OVER THREATS OF LAW SUITS

Washington, Oct. 31.—(P)—With army corps area commanders already calling for the initial contingents of men, national selective service officials concentrated today on clearing the way for local boards to begin actual selection of the 800,000 trainees who will be summoned by next June 15 for a year's military training.

Just a few hours after Tuesday's historic conscription lottery was completed, Major General George A. Woodruff, corps area commander at Boston, called on the six New England governors in that area to provide 984 men by November 18 under the selective service system.

Simultaneously on the Pacific coast the Ninth Corps area at San Francisco dispatched to the governors of seven far western states its opening requisition for a total of 1,630 men to report to induction stations between November 18 and 22.

Draft Director Clarence A. Dykstra said the last of the master lists probably would be in the mail today and forecast that if the various state headquarters functioned with comparable speed, every local board would have its copies not later than next Monday.

Every man has five days in which to fill out and return his questionnaire and the regulations provide that those eventually called for service be given five days immediately prior to induction in the army in which to wind up personal affairs.

Draft officials estimated that men whose numbers were not in the first 1,500 drawn in the lottery will have very little chance even of getting questionnaires, much less being called for service, at least as far as selection of the first 800,000 trainees is concerned.

AUTO INDUSTRY TO HELP BUILD 12,000 BOMBERS

Program to Cost $2,000,000,000 Described in Washington as Separate From Order Britain Proposes to Place in This Country

PLANTS TO BE ERECTED

Washington, Oct. 31.—(P)—The War Department was reported today to have planned production of 12,000 additional bombing airplanes largely with the aid of the automobile industry.

This program, to cost possibly $2,000,000,000, was described as separate from the 12,000 warplane order which President Roosevelt said last night Great Britain has proposed to place in this country.

Recent conferences of William S. Knudsen, defense commissioner in charge of production, with automobile industry leaders, were concerned with plans for the new American bomber production.

The program was reported to call for erection of two large plants to assemble parts manufactured in automobile factories.

Whether the plants would be operated by the government or by automobile or aircraft industries was said to be undecided thus far. Government operation was favored by some authorities.

Tentative estimates for appropriations to finance this newest projected phase of plane construction already have been submitted to the budget bureau for later transmission to congress, it was learned.

No delivery dates for the new planes were indicated.

Persons familiar with the plans said the defense commission turned to the automobile industry when indications developed that regular aircraft plants could not be expanded further without delay and heavy expense. Great Britain, it was noted, made similar use of motor car manufacturing facilities from the start of her rearmament program.

The proposed new bombers, to be divided between two-motor and four-motor types, would more than double the number of bombers at present on order for the army air corps.

Of more than 20,000 planes of all types under contract for the air corps at least half are trainers and not more than a fourth are bombers, the remainder being pursuit and other types.

The new plan contemplates the fourth war plane building program in this country.

CAMPAIGN IN WEST FOCUSED ON CALIFORNIA

San Francisco, Oct. 31.—(P)—Cross-currents have so distorted the reflecting power of the presidential campaign on the Pacific coast that it scarcely can cast an image of what many look like the day after election, but the Democrats still hold a 1,000,000-vote edge in registration in California, one of the biggest prizes west of the Mississippi.

"President Roosevelt will carry California by a majority of 400,000," says William B. Malone, Democratic state chairman.

Republicans are expecting the Democratic registration advantage to be offset by the pro-Willkie efforts of Senator Hiram Johnson and John L. Lewis, plus a split in Democratic state party leadership and the anti-new deal and anti-third term Democrats.

Johnson now is up for re-election to a fifth term. In the primary he won the Democratic and Progressive as well as the Republican nomination. He is opposed only by a Communist, Anita Whitney.

Oregon Republicans are counting upon their own Senator McNary, the vice presidential nominee, to put the state in the Republican column. Republicans have a slight edge in the registration, but on even smaller one than in 1936, when the state voted overwhelmingly for Roosevelt.

Washington, with an estimated 900,000 registration and eight electoral votes, always is a pre-election enigma because its citizens are not registered by parties. It went heavily for Roosevelt in 1932 and 1936.

ROOSEVELT STAND ON WAR IS REAFFIRMED; SCORED BY WILLKIE

President Roosevelt reaffirmed his pledge that United States "boys are not going to be sent into any foreign war," but almost at the same moment last night Wendell L. Willkie was saying "if you elect him (Mr. Roosevelt), on the basis of his past performances and pledges, you may expect war by April, 1941."

The two contenders for the White House spoke a little over 400 miles apart, the Democratic nominee addressing one enthusiastic party rally in Boston while his Republican rival spoke before another enthusiastic gathering at Baltimore.

Mr. Roosevelt's Boston speech, which also discussed the topics of defense and agriculture, capped a campaign day which took him through Connecticut and Massachusetts, two states that represent a total of 25 electoral votes on November 3.

Willkie, on a companion stumping tour, campaigned for support in West Virginia and Maryland, his voice husky from the strain imposed by his extended speaking program.

President Roosevelt used the Boston address to announce that Britain had requested permission to negotiate for 12,000 more planes in the United States and that he, in turn, had asked the proper defense officials to give Britain "most sympathetic consideration" in the matter.

PLANE PROPOSAL BRITAIN'S PLEA IS DISCUSSED BY G. O. P. NOMINEE

Aboard Willkie Train en route to Camden, N. J., Oct. 31.—(P)—Wendell L. Willkie told a cheering crowd at Wilmington, Del., today that if he is elected president a British request for 12,000 American planes would be "insignificant" because, he declared, production would be geared to a new high.

Speaking to a crowd which filled City Hall Square, the Republican presidential nominee quoted President Roosevelt as saying he wanted sympathetic attention to such a proposal.

At Chesler, Pa., Willkie addressed a street corner audience, saying that "all over the country the upsurge is on."

President Roosevelt, he recalled, "has not offered a single reason for violating the anti-third term tradition. At first he tried to create the impression that he was being drafted, but the military inspection trips made that a little thin. Now he is out beating the bushes like a candidate for representative."

Directly in front of the candidate a dozen members of the audience carried Roosevelt signs.

"Well, who wouldn't?" Willkie asked, "if you elected me president, such a request will not even be news, because it will be so insignificant. We will be turning out planes by the hundreds where we now are turning them out by ones."

"Have you any doubt that Wendell Willkie, with the confidence of (Turn to Page Seventeen)

Police Sponsoring Halloween Parties

Boston, Oct. 31.—(P)—The Boston police know of approximately 100,000 youngsters who will not be bent upon mischief this Halloween. They will be guests of the department at 75 parties in school halls, police stations and church basements throughout the city.

Police Commissioner Joseph P. Timiney, who inaugurated the parties three years ago, said tonight's would be the biggest to date.

The mention of Martin's name as among Republican leaders who had voted against commodity loans brought home from the crowd.

"I wouldn't single him out," the president said, "except that he is of national interest, now because at the time of his appointment as Republican national chairman there was pinned on him the following handsome verbal bouquet, this expensive orchid: 'In public life for many years Joe Martin has represented all that is finest in American public life.'"

Quaker City Vote May Sway Entire State and Nation at Next Tuesday's Election

By WILLIAM A. BELL
Philadelphia, Oct. 31.—(P)—As Philadelphia goes at next Tuesday's election, so might go Pennsylvania and the nation.

For this city of small homes and large factories could swing the state, and the state's 36 electoral votes could be a determining factor in the national result. Both President Roosevelt and Wendell L. Willkie realize this. Each has made a major political speech here, and Willkie may make another. The President chose Philadelphia to open his campaign last week.

Leaders of both major parties in the state have been concentrating on Philadelphia, particularly in the final stages of the campaign. More than one fifth of all eligible voters in Pennsylvania cast their ballots in this sprawling city on the Delaware river.

Philadelphia went Republican last fall, but that was in a local election and the city has been Republican in its local politics for more than half a century.

In 1936, the city gave President Roosevelt a 209,876 plurality over Alf M. Landon. The President's campaign lieutenants here believe he'll repeat next week.

Hopes for Resisting Invasion From Albania Are Pinned on Natural Mountain Fortresses

By ELMER W. PETERSON
Budapest, Hungary, Oct. 31.—(P)—Greece pins her initial hopes of resisting Italian invasion from Albania on natural fortresses of her mountainous northwest augmented by the extensive system of the "Metaxas line."

The Metaxas line, named after Premier John Metaxas, runs the length of the Albanian-Greek frontier from the Ionian coast to Lake Prespa—about 100 miles as the crow flies—and stretches on along the Yugoslav and Bulgarian frontiers to the Turkish border.

The original Metaxas line was directly chiefly against Bulgaria. But when Italy seized Albania in April, 1939, the Greek government built new fortifications, at a reported cost of more than $6,000,000, to defend her northwest frontier against the new threat.

Details of the line are secret, but it is believed to consist of strategically-placed concrete fortifications, earthworks, pillboxes and barbed wire tank-traps—all designed to supplement the natural defenses afforded by the rugged upland country.

OFFICIAL OPENING OF LOBLAW'S NEW FOOD MARKET TO BE HELD FRIDAY AND SATURDAY IN SPACIOUS NEW SECOND AVENUE QUARTERS

Tomorrow morning at eight o'clock shoppers of Warren and vicinity will be able to inspect one of the most spacious, attractive and completely stocked stores of its type in this section of the state when the Loblaws Food Market holds its official opening in its new quarters in the recently-constructed Kresge building, on Second avenue between Liberty and Market streets, in the rear of the S. S. Kresge Co. store.
The new market will handle all of the lines of food stuffs carried by Loblaws formerly, as well as many new items. Among the latter is the famous Fairmont brand of frozen foods.
One of the most attractive features of the new quarters for Loblaws is the easy manner of entering and leaving the store. Four wide lanes lead past the cash registers into a lobby which will provide ample room for shoppers. Others for delivery will be placed in a chute which carries the packages into the cellar where they are picked up by the delivery men, thus clearing the space for the greater convenience of patrons.
Loblaws patrons will quickly note that the arrangement of all articles is such that canned goods, fruits, vegetables, meats and specialties may be quickly located. The shelves are clearly marked and unusually accessible.
Fresh fruits and vegetables occupy the space at the left of the entrance, the west side of the building. With the 36-foot meat counter occupying the entire rear of the store.
The store has circulating heat with fans keeping the air constantly fresh. Other conveniences for patrons include a leather-upholstered bench for customers, a water fountain and double doors for the exit and entrance. A cel-lux ceiling has been installed.
A large parking lot at the east side of the building will provide free parking for Loblaws and Kresge customers' automobiles.
All arrangements for the opening have been completed, a staff of fifty being on hand tomorrow and Saturday when the store will be open from eight in the morning until nine and ten o'clock, respectively. With each $2.00 purchase on Friday and Saturday, Loblaws will give away one pound bag of Magic Cup coffee.
Manager Albert F. Minelli stated today that the new store will be fully and completely staffed and that it has been necessary to add several persons to the store personnel.
All residents of this vicinity are invited to attend the opening of the Loblaws Food Market and to compare prices and quality.

WEST HICKORY TOLL BRIDGE IS BOUGHT BY P.D.H.
After being operated as a toll bridge for 57 years, the structure spanning the Allegheny river between East and West Hickory, today was thrown open to traffic as a free bridge, it was announced today at the district office of the Pennsylvania Department of Highways in Franklin.
The West Hickory toll bridge has been purchased by the state highway department under the toll bridge purchasing act of 1933, it was stated.
The bridge, which is approximately 950 feet long, was built in 1883 and has been operated since that time as a toll bridge.

Fifth Ward G. O. P. Organization Holds Successful Meeting
One of the most successful meetings of the current campaign was held last night in the Jefferson street school when a crowd of more than 150 gathered in the school auditorium under the auspices of the Fifth Ward Young Republican Club.
Under the general chairmanship of Mrs. Dagna Korb, a program of speeches and entertainment had been arranged. Marion Loucks acted as master of ceremonies and introduced the main speakers, who included Addison White, District Attorney J. A. Goldstein, Assemblyman W. W. Muir and W. M. Stone. Allison D. Wade, Young Republican chairman, announced an "open house" to be held at the Philomel Club on election night and invited all those present to gather at that time to hear election returns.
Highlights of the entertainment program were humorous readings by Fern Mostert and an exhibition of sleight-of-hand by the youthful magician, Bob Hart.
Assisting Mrs. Korb were the following committee: Mrs. Casey, chairman; Rose Amacher, Alice Mickelson, Mrs. Joy, refreshments, Marion Davis, chairman. Myrna Loomis, Mrs. Loucks, Mary Hill-dum, Mrs. Mullen; publicity, Mrs. Geraldine Lowe; co-chairmen Mrs. Goldstein and Mr. Mullen.

'UNSEEN' ENEMY THREATENS CAR OWNERS

Have you changed the worn summer lubricants in your car to clean, fresh, quality winter lubricants of the correct grade? If not, do so at once! See your nearest or favorite Sterling or Quaker State dealer immediately for a Complete Winter Lubrication job.

Because an unseen enemy is threatening you. An unseen enemy that will cost you money for repairs unless you take steps to prevent it.

That unseen enemy is the contamination of your present lubricants. Have picked up during the summer—dirt, dust, dilution, corrosion, etc. that work secretly like a fifth column to undermine the smoothness, efficiency and safety of your car.

Car owners do not realize that public health department records show that a dust fall from one to four tons per square mile per day is not unusual in American cities. Some of that dust works its way into your motor oil and lubricants.

Car owners do not realize that more than a gallon of water is produced in an engine by the burning of one gallon of gasoline. This water ordinarily is in the form of vapor or steam; but sometimes some of this water condenses and gets into the lubricants.

Car owners do not realize that the operating contact of the lubricants with the air and metal surfaces gradually sets up chemical changes that develop substances that may cause damage to bearings, gears, etc.

The contamination of these various foreign elements in your lubricants is an unseen enemy but a very dangerous one when neglected or disregarded.

If it were not for contamination, quality lubricants would last indefinitely. But automotive engineers and lubrication engineers long ago discovered that they could not prevent lubricant contamination—but that they could prevent it from damaging anything by regular changes to fresh lubricants.

That is why—at this time of year—your Quaker State or Sterling Dealer urges you to make a date with him and change the dirty summer lubricants in your car to quality Sterling or Quaker State—winter grade.

CHANGE NOW! You won't save anything by waiting, but you may prevent damage to delicate surfaces by acting immediately. Your car should be operating now on fresh, winter lubricants through.

Don't let the fifth column of dirty lubricants—attacking your motor—defend your motor against the sabotage of foreign elements in dirty lubricants by CHANGING NOW TO WINTER LUBRICATION.

See your nearest Sterling or Quaker State Dealer for quality lubricants—your first line of defense for your car.

ENROLL WARREN COUNTY YOUNG PEOPLE IN NYA

With the Warren county quota definitely fixed for 200, an effort is being made to enroll every available youth in the program of the National Youth Administration, it was stated today by Robert Williams, county NYA supervisor.

He announced that he will be at the Guild rooms in Kinzua Friday morning from 9 to 11 o'clock and in the library at Sugar Grove from 2 to 4 p. m. tomorrow for the purpose of enrolling young people between the ages of 18 and 25.

Contacts already have been made in Clarion, Sheffield, Youngsville and Tidoute and committee members have been named in each of the communities to assist in the enrollment.

If Warren county does not fill its quota, the additional number will be assigned to other counties, he said.

WARREN LEGION POST TO START MEMBER DRIVE

The annual membership drive of Chief Complanter Post, No. 135, American Legion, will open November 6th and close November 14th. There will be a dinner served to all team members on the opening night, two report meetings during the drive and a closing dinner the night of November 14th.

The drive this year will be under the leadership of Senior Vice Commander William L. Walker assisted by Past Commanders Ralph Brasington, Donald E. Schuler, C. D. Cannon, K. W. Davis, Ben Kinnear as well as Commander N. K. Wendelhoe, Gilbert Buerkle and Edward Hawley.

At a meeting held at the Legion Home last night the following team captains were selected to lead the drive: D. E. Schuler, Edwin H. Ley, Gilbert Buerkle, K. W. Davis, Ben Kinnear, Ralph Brasington, C. D. Cannon, C. W. Proud and Ralph A. Harrah.

Some 600 prospect cards will be made out during the coming week and will be turned over to team captains the night before the official opening of the drive. Of this total some 300 or more are former members of the Legion so every worker will have an average of 7 prospects to call upon, many of whom are former Legion members.

TIMES TOPICS

ODIN LODGE SUPPER
Odin Lodge, S. F. of A., will have a thirteen supper for members and their families at 6:30 o'clock Friday evening in the lodge rooms. All are urged to be in attendance.

IS HOSPITAL PATIENT
Friends will be glad to know that Miss Frances Falber, of Clarion, is getting along nicely at the Warren General Hospital following an operation for appendicitis performed yesterday.

OLD GUARDS TO MEET
The Old Guards will hold their regular meeting at the Y. M. C. A. at 10:30 o'clock Friday morning, with Rev. James A. Davidson, pastor of the First Baptist church, as the speaker.

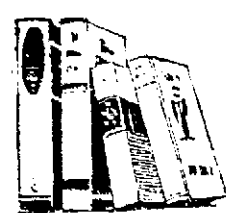

VOTING MACHINE
It was announced today that a voting machine carrying the 1940 ballot, to be used in next Tuesday's election, has been placed on display in the corridor of the court house, where it may be inspected by any interested persons.

TURKEY DINNER DATE
The date has been set and members of Trinity Service League of the Trinity Memorial Episcopal church are busy with plans for the annual parish turkey dinner on November 14. Tickets may be had by calling the church office, and other details will be announced later.

LANGHANS NAMED
Word has been received from the University of Rochester that Edward Langhans, son of Mr. and Mrs. Allen M. Langhans, 16 Crescent Park, has been pledged to Theta Delta Chi, national social fraternity. Langhans, a freshman at the university was graduated from Warren High School last year.

FORMER RESIDENT
Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Thompson, of Lander, have as their guests Orrin Thompson, of San Jacinto, Calif., and his great-grandson, Sam Ryan, of Riverdale, Calif. The older visitor is a former resident of Warren county and will be better remembered as "Doc" Thompson. Despite his 94 years, he enjoyed greatly the week's trip east.

KIWANIS CLUB
At the weekly luncheon meeting of the Warren Kiwanis Club, held yesterday noon at the Y. W. C. A., the members enjoyed colored moving pictures taken by James Blomquist last summer to New York World's Fair, and points of interest in New York City and the New England States, including the White Mountain district of New Hampshire. A report was made on the party of the Saturday Evening Boys' Club and it was announced that this club will hold its next meeting Saturday evening with H. D. Baker, F. W. Bathurst, J. K. Bell, J. A. Blomquist and Dr. E. S. Briggs on the committee. Sergeants named for November are Harry Sumners, Bruce Trusler, Allison Wade and Dr. J. T. Valone.

CELEBRATE WITH REASON!

Tonight is Hallowe'en. Some may dread that fact, for Hallowe'en activity on the part of the youngsters and some not so young has become something more than a nuisance.

It is strange how the modern light-minded world will take some old occasion created by pious men to bring sober thought to humanity, and turn it into a grand joke. So it is with this occasion called Hallowe'en.

Originally it was observed as the night before All Saints Day, when the Christian world paid tribute to a great body of saints and martyrs. Men and women were supposed to bow in reverence to those who had performed great deeds.

The modern topsy-turvy world of youthful life takes this occasion of solemnity and sacred reflection, and turns it into a grand jamboree when kid spirit boils over.

The old idea of Hallowe'en had it that the spirits of the dead thus commemorated would rise from their present homes or retreats and wander around the earth, visiting the scenes of their former trials and labors. So people probably used to look at dark places rather fearfully, dreading lest some awesome spook should accost them, and bring threatening messages from the nether world.

So kid life takes that old superstition, and turns it into juvenile fun, and as a consequence all householders should be on their guard tonight. It doesn't seem to do any particular good for the home owner to get mad if he finds his gate carried off, his porch furniture moved to the neighboring house, or his windows smeared with all manner of soaped caricatures.

Every person is willing to see youngsters have a good time. It should be possible for them to enjoy themselves tonight without causing any of the above-mentioned depredations, that arouse resentment.

HELP THE GUILD

The Needlework Guild, often termed the "charity which helps all charities," is having its annual garment collection and tea Friday between three and five o'clock at the Woman's Club.

Membership in the Guild is based on giving of two new, identical articles or a sum of money, the amount not specified. That is all you have to do to help promote this commendable work.

In the past five years the Guild has contributed 2,986 garments to the Visiting Nurses' Association, 1,082 to the Children's Aid Society, and 1,671 to the Warren Relief Association.

The association will be glad to receive your donation of two articles of clothing or a sum of money and enroll you with this group of public-spirited citizens engaged in a work that brings comfort and happiness to children of destitute families in our own community.

Publishing approximately 100 names from each of the two local board districts daily, will take some time to cover the entire draft list. Those lower on the list will just have to be a little patient.

In spite of a hot presidential election the Warren County Chapter of the American Red Cross has completed plans for the annual roll call, which this year, looms more important than ever before.

For those who feel they must do a little cutting up this evening, the North Warren celebration and carnival may be recommended.

By this time the average voter must be just a little surprised to learn how important he is!

You'll have to make up your mind within the next four days!

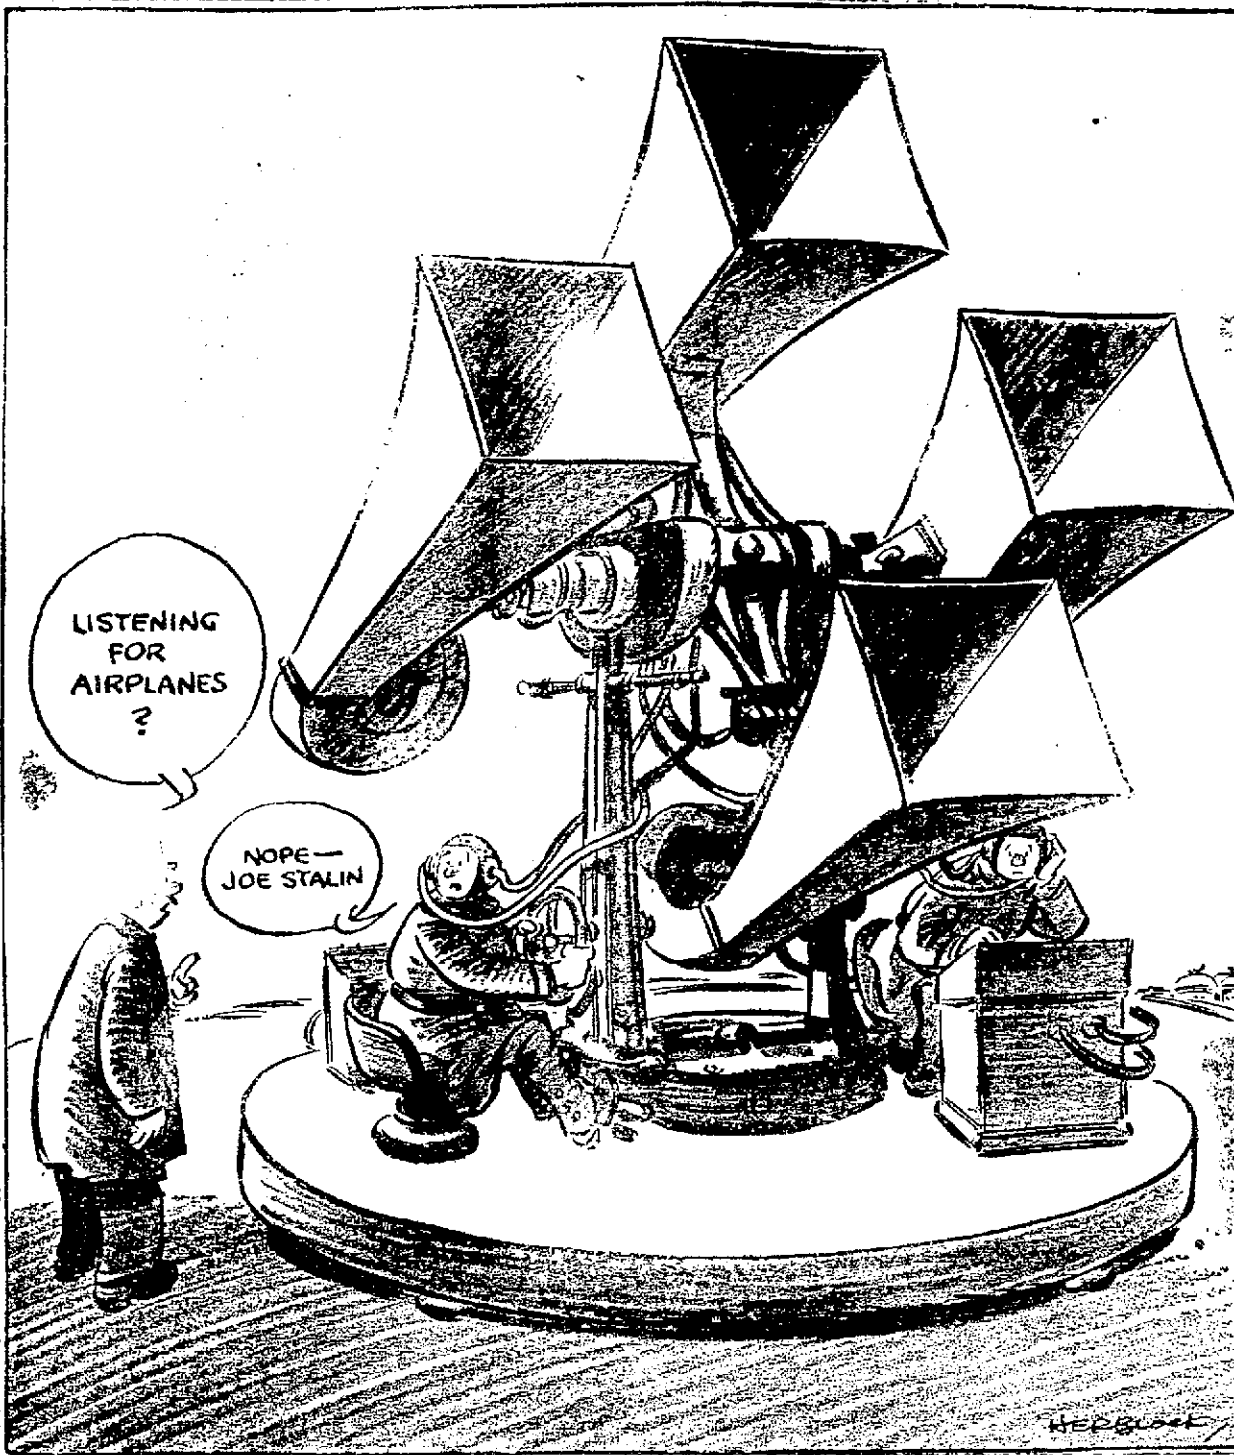

If all the autos were placed end to end, it would be Sunday!

T-H-O-U-G-H-T-S

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.—Psalms 23:4.

Man About Manhattan

By GEORGE TUCKER

NEW YORK—Hat check girls have made curious Broadway history from time to time. I remember one who whipped out a knife and stabbed a dancer one night because this dancer was shining up to her sugar, a philanthropic Romeo who played fiddle in the orchestra. There was another who married an undergraduate at Columbia and moved with him to Mexico, where she became a bridge expert. Likewise famous among New York nightclubs hat-check lasses is Renee Carroll, who is now assisting in editing Stage Magazine. We asked her for a few "definitions" of types encountered in NY's pubs and clubs, and this is what she gave us:

Tripper—A person who comes to look at the celebrities. . . . John D—a guy who tips only a dime. . . . Brass Peddler—one who counts out your tips in pennies. . . . A heavyweight is the fellow who checks seven or eight bundles, including rubbers, umbrella, coat, hat, etc., for only a dime. . . . But if you only check your hat and leave a quarter tip, you're a lightweight.

Our palm for the fellow who knows how to adapt himself to a changing situation goes this week to Jimmy Dorsey. Playing a neighborhood theater the other night, Bob Eberle (the vocalist) was launched into one of his feature numbers when all the lights went out. . . . That left it squarely up to the boys to keep right on playing. However, to favor Eberle with a "spot" light, Dorsey whipped out a paper of matches and, lighting one after the other, held them in Eberle's face until the number was over. The hand they got for this number was the heaviest of the week.

ADDED notes on "The Thief of Bagdad": June Duprez, who plays the Beautiful Sleeping Princess, is worried sick about her brother, an aviator now interned in Finland. . . . She hasn't had word of him in three months. . . . This is her first American picture. . . . She was seen briefly in "Four Feathers," but all of that film was produced in England. . . . Rex Ingram, the giant Negro who plays the Evil Genii, will be on Broadway with Ethel Waters and a notable cast soon in "Cabin in the Sky." . . . Sabu, the little "thief" is a Mohammedan. . . . He tells you the British are a cinch to win the war. . . . The villain of "Thief" is our old friend Conrad Veidt of silent days who was a great hit in "The Man Who Laughs." . . . Veidt must be well into his forties, perhaps close to fifty. . . . He is lean, hard, and seemingly young.

DINNER last night at the airport was exciting. You sit over your steak gazing through the terrace windows out over the world's longest runways. . . . Like giant fireflies, with their landing lights aglow, the big planes arrive and take off every few minutes. . . . I counted 16 transports taking off for every section of this great, vast America—Washington, Atlanta, New Orleans, Pittsburgh, Kansas City, Los Angeles. . . . Suddenly a big bomber dropped out of the sky and taxied gently over to one side. . . . What was it doing at LaGuardia field? . . . Well, it was dinner time and a couple of the boys had looked in for a bite and a chat.

YEARS AGO IN WARREN

Interesting Items Taken From the Warren Evening Times

In 1920

Every indication points to a large vote being cast in this section tomorrow. Interest in the presidential election has increased greatly within the past week, while the fight being waged between Bixler and Hulings for congress has added to the excitement.

For the first time in this state women will assist in computing the election returns Tuesday. Two women clerks have been secured for the Fifth Ward and women will doubtless serve in several of the election precincts of the county.

The Russell baseball team closed a successful season with a banquet at the Lane House, when the following officers were elected: Gerald Hale, president; Lyle Russell, secretary and treasurer; Charles Anderson, manager; Gerald Hale, captain.

Glenn Stone, who for five years has been a valued bookkeeper in the Warren National Bank, has resigned his position and today entered upon his work with the White Oil Company in the Clarendon office.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Knapp left this morning for Oklahoma where the former has extensive oil interests.

Over 250 Odd Fellows from lodges in five counties in northwestern Pennsylvania attended the special session of the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania at the School of Instruction held by Grand Master Webster Grim and Grand Secretary Usher A. Hall, in the Temple of Warren Lodge No. 338, I. O. O. F., last evening.

The regular meeting of Council will be held Monday night and it is probable that there will be a discussion regarding the removal of the tracks, poles and wires of the Warren Street Railway Company, the cars of which stopped operation two weeks ago and have been replaced by the West Ridge Bus Lines.

Dr. LeRoy E. Campbell will deliver a free lecture on "The Value of the Study of Psychology" at the Young Men's Christian Association Monday.

The Choral Society of the Woman's Club will hold its opening meeting Monday evening when Mrs. Alice Leidig will present a paper on folk songs.

Miss Betty Field and Robert Field, accompanied by their aunt, Mrs. B. F. Hazleton, of Clarion, motored to Philadelphia yesterday to attend the Kansas-Penn football game today.

STAMP NEWS

ARGENTINA has announced a special stamp, for release in November, honoring Lieut.-Gen. Julio Argentino Roca, sixth president of the republic, an important figure in Argentina's development. Design of the stamp will be an equestrian statue of Roca. Argentina also has announced a new series of five airmails.

Paraguay marks the death of President Jose Felix Estigarribia philatelically with a mourning overprint on the Paraguayan soldier stamp of the Peace of the Chaco series. President Estigarribia and his wife were killed in an airplane crash Sept. 7.

Postal Savings were authorized by congress in 1910 and instituted a year later.

A Washington Daybook

By JACK STINNETT

WASHINGTON—Finley Peter Dunne's Mr. Dooley was speaking over his bar to Hennessey. "Sooh," said Mr. Dooley, "the election will be over and after that Dooley goes back to his beer pumps and Hennessey goes back to his slag pile and the old flag'll continue to wave over us all."

Apparently Mr. Dunne knew his history as well as he knew his Irish Americans. There have been 37 national elections. With the exception of the first none has been unanimous. Invariably election campaigns have been marked with bitterness. Some have been bloody. Ripe eggs and over-ripe vegetables have been thrown—many times.

But only twice in the history of the United States have election battles resulted in post-election handovers and from one of these the sick nation emerged healthier and happier than it had been for decades.

Every four years Johnny Q. Democrat and Richard R. Republican strip to the waist and go at it tooth and nail with no holds barred. Socking below the belt is common. Every four years except in two instances—they've dragged their aching bodies out of bed the morning after election to get back to the united task of seeing that America carries on.

One of those two instances, of course, was the Civil War when the boys got mixed up in the slavery question and had to call on Joe Public to go out on the field of battle and settle the fight once and for all.

1876 Was Acid Test

THE other was the exception that proves the rule: the great Hayes-Tilden dispute in 1876. Then a presidential election hung in doubt nearly four months while charges and countercharges blistered the walls of Congress, the paving stones of the cities and the fields of the farms. By a carpet-oag count in Louisiana, Florida and South Carolina, Rutherford B. Hayes had stolen the election. The Democrats screamed. By threat and intimidation of the Negro voters in those same states, Samuel J. Tilden had stolen the election, shouted the Republicans. With a Democratic House of Representatives and a Republican Senate, the deadlock remained unbroken until almost the day of inauguration. The threat of civil war appeared again.

Then as quickly as the clouds gathered, they were dispelled. Hayes, who on the face of things had only 184 electoral votes to Tilden's 185, and about 300,000 fewer popular votes, was declared elected President of the United States. Within a few weeks the troops were withdrawn from the three states in question and their state governments given back to the Democrats. Following one of their bitterest battles in history, the boys had met the acid test. Joe Public's will be done.

20th Century Scraps

THERE had been bitter election fights before. The rise and reign of Thomas Jefferson—of Andrew Jackson, at the beginning of whose second administration a famous tariff compromise scotched secession of South Carolina—of Abraham Lincoln, who went into office with a million fewer popular votes than the total cast for his opponents.

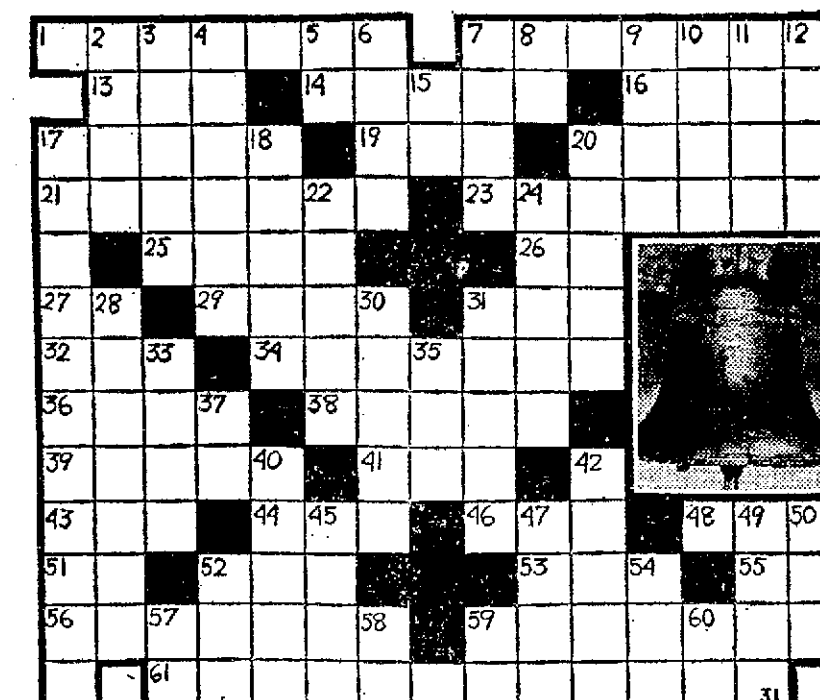

There have been campaigns wars since the time when mud flew freely and bruises marred the body politic. Within our own time there was the three-way Roosevelt-Wilson-Taft battle of 1912—the sometimes almost vicious Hoover-Smith contest of 1928.

Sitting on sidelines here in Washington, the impartial political graybeards several times have wagged their heads and dubbed the 1940 campaign one of the tougher scraps. Through this focal point passes all the charges, flows all the mud and smear of every Presidential campaign.

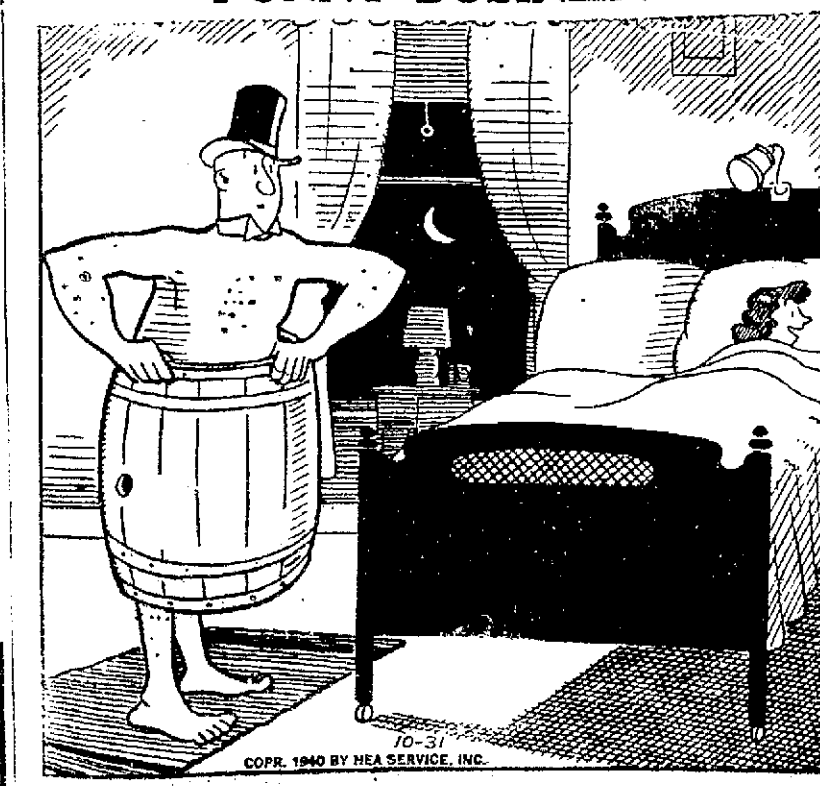

And if you stay away from the boys in the thick of the fray and ask the graybeards, they'll tell you Mr. Dooley was right. If you don't believe it, they say, just look in the history books.

SOCIETY
Woman's Auxiliary Of Trinity Church Goes to Bradford
Ten members of the Woman's Auxiliary of Trinity Memorial Episcopal church were in Bradford Wednesday to attend the 23rd annual meeting of the Convocation of the Woman's Auxiliary, held in the Church of the Ascension.
These included Mrs. A. H. Wickstrom, local president and vice president in charge of this convocation; Mrs. E. P. Wroth, Miss Anna Rockwell, Miss Ella Tybout, Mrs. W. F. Henry, Mrs. Richard Hansen, Miss Fannie McCauley, Mrs. R. S. Hall, Mrs. George Frantz, Miss Emily Peterson and Mrs. F. P. Kirwin.
Reports were given by the delegates who attended the triennial meeting at the general conference in Kansas City, Mo., and Rev. T. L. Small, of Oil City, offered convention highlights. Reports of the various parishes and missions in the districts were also presented at this time.
A splendid talk was given by Miss Bernice Jansen, native of Norway, who is a united thank offering worker supervising 15 Episcopal kindergartens in the northern part of Japan, with headquarters in Sendai.
Greetings were extended by the diocesan president, Mrs. F. F. Hammond, of St. Marys, and the group was invited to meet in that city in October, 1941.

Mrs. Allie Russell Presents Hungarian Music For Annual President's Day at Philomel Club

President's Day at the Philomel Club on Wednesday afternoon brought out a large attendance to greet Mrs. Allie Russell, who returns to the club's head after a three-year administration held by Mrs. Walter Murphy.
Mrs. Russell announced the business meeting on November 6 and a program-meeting November 13, with Miss Evelyn Samuelson in charge of the program and Mrs. A. F. Kottcamp heading the hostess committee. The report of last season's activities was given by Miss Samuelson and an outline of this year, by Miss Jean Robertson, chairman of the music committee. The president made announcement of a new series of contact bridge tournaments to be sponsored by the club, to start next Wednesday evening.
After Mrs. John Ekey, retiring treasurer, had reported for the past season and summer months, she was happily surprised in the presentation of a gift from the club in appreciation of nearly 25 years of service in that office. Mrs. Walter Murphy made the presentation.
In her formal greeting, Mrs. Russell expressed her appreciation of the honor paid her by the club in electing her to the presidency, spoke of the members who have departed and paid tribute to the efforts and accomplishments of the retiring guest.
The honored guest was presented with an end table.

EMBROIDERY ENHANCES FROCK

PATTERN 4603

by ANNE ADAMS
Here's a pretty Anne Adams frock that comes in two gay versions. Let colorful embroidered flowers decorate its front, and Pattern 4603 looks "all dressed up"; without embroidery it is trim and tailored. A transfer pattern and directions for making the simple embroidery motif come right along with the Sewing Instructor. The frock itself is very easy to make, with just a long center-front panel and attractively curved side bodice sections. Choose between long and short sleeves. And let the collar be in a rounded or a scalloped shape, making it of either self-fabric or gay contrast. Bloomers or panties complete this kiddie style.

Pattern 4603 is available in children's sizes 4, 6, 8, 10 and 12. Size 6 dress with embroidery, takes 1 1/2 yards 35 inch fabric; other dress, 1 1/2 yards 35 inch fabric and 1/4 yard contrast.

Kinzua

Kinzua, Oct. 25—The installation of officers for the coming year in the Women's Society of Christian Service was held in the Community House last Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock and was in charge of the pastor, Wayne Price. The following officers who were elected at a charter meeting two weeks previous were installed: President, Mrs. C. A. Young, vice president, Mrs. Charles Linneman; recording secretary, Mrs. E. E. Harding; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Charles Weindl. Following the meeting a committee served tea with Mrs. Ralph Zerbe and Mrs. Charles Linneman pouring at a prettily appointed table decorated with fall flowers and candles. Mrs. Norman Atkins recently entertained at her home in honor of Mrs. Wayne J. Morrison, who left to join her husband with her children in Ohio, where he has been employed for some time. The evening was pleasantly passed with games and the guest of honor received a gift from the members of the Alpha Bible Class, who composed the party. The hostess served a dainty lunch at the close of the evening. There were twelve ladies present.

Mrs. Ralph Zerbe entertained the members of the Helping Hand Sunday school class of the Methodist church at her home Tuesday evening. A pleasant time was enjoyed by all present, the hostess serving a dainty lunch following the business meeting.

Jack Shine, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Shine, is a patient in the Warren General Hospital, where he underwent an operation for appendicitis last Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Alice Mohney is ill at her home here. Mrs. Clara Brown has returned home after visiting her sister, Miss Jessie Beckwith, in Rutherford Run. Miss Edith Chamberlain, a former teacher in the Kinzua schools, but at present a teacher in the Sheffield schools, spent the week-end with Miss Alice Holmes. Mrs.

Louise Mann, teacher in room one gave a reading and number demonstration in her room on Wednesday afternoon, which was attended by a number of mothers.

Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Shipman were in Coudersport last Sunday, where they visited the former's sister.

Joseph Van Buskirk was called to Emporium recently by the death of his brother-in-law.

Mr. and Mrs. William McWhorter and children and friends, from Tonawanda, N. Y., were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Sheldon.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Linneman were guests of the latter's mother, Mrs. Mary Fulton, in Marienville, last Sunday. Mrs. Harry Culbertson, from New Castle, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Fred Culbertson for a few days. Mrs. Campbell and son from Girard, is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Walter Matson. Mrs. Walter Quiggle entertained a party of little folks in honor of her daughter Joyce's birthday recently. Games were played out of doors. The honor guest received many nice gifts and Mrs. Quiggle served cake and ice cream at the conclusion of the afternoon. The following children were present: Genevieve, Michelle and Charles Coughlin, Dorothy Holl, Marjorie, Janet and Helen Quiggle, Dora and Raffala Pace, Pat Sue Dowd, Lois Hancock and Maxine Carpenter.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Gather, from Rouseville; Mrs. Ada Sanner and Mrs. Adell Holder from Deerpont, Pa., and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Holder from Kane were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. Eoyd English last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Young and daughter, Ella Mae, from Connoquessett, Pa., and Mrs. Jay Young and Mr. and Mrs. Peter Bagley, from North East, were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Young. Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Hanna and daughter, Earlene, spent last Saturday in Ebensburg with Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Hanna. Mrs. Lou Tunney and son, Thomas, from Rochester, N. Y., and Mrs. Olive Wolfe, from Niagara Falls, N. Y., visited their mother and aunt, Mrs. Mary Morton, last weekend.

Mrs. Ruth Palmeter has moved from rooms in the mission building to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kell on the Dewdrop road, for the winter.

Merrill Livezey, from Upland, Ind., arrived Saturday to spend some time with his wife, who is a member of the Kinzua high school faculty.

The condition of Mrs. Martha Fox, who has been confined to her bed for some weeks, is about the same.

Stanley McClellan, from Olean, N. Y., recently visited his mother, Mrs. Frank McClellan. Virgil Schultz, of the U. S. Army Air Corps, from Langley Field, Va., recently visited friends here while having a five day leave. Upon returning to Langley field he expected to be sent to Porto Rico for two years' training. Miss Jaque Elisabeth Thompson, a freshman at Houghton College, Houghton, N. Y., spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Thompson.

Mr. and Mrs. John English were guests of Mrs. Agnes Whitman and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Crooks, of Limestone, N. Y., last Saturday.

The senior class of the high school has chosen a play, entitled "A Ready Made Family," which they expect to present in a few weeks. The cast will be announced with the date of the play.

VARSITY CLUB AT YOUNGSVILLE PLANS PROGRAM

Youngsville, Oct. 30.—Youngsville high school boys' varsity club is presenting at 8 p. m. Friday evening in the school auditorium a unique entertainment which they are naming "Stunt Night Show". The show will be a benefit for the school athletic fund.

Over a hundred students will take part in the evening's program. There will be students from the first grade up through the grades, junior and senior high schools.

There will be twenty-five acts with attractions such as singing, dancing, tumbling, pyramid building, boxing, wrestling, magic, with wit and humor.

OFFICERS INSTALLED
Eleven members of the Youngsville American Legion Auxiliary attended the inter-county council held at Johnstown, Saturday, at which time local officers as well as other officers of the district were installed.

Those in attendance from the local chapter were Mrs. Warren Jones, president; Mrs. Carl Mourer, secretary; and Mrs. Betty Patch, treasurer; Mrs. Florence Hyde, Mrs. Alice Streeter, Mrs. William Hesburn, Mrs. James Lucas, Mrs. H. A. Mourer, of Youngsville, and Mrs. Chester Shattuck and Mrs. Inez Rudolph, of Warren, but members of the Youngsville Auxiliary.

LEGION MEET
Youngsville Halgren-Wilcox Post of the American Legion met on Monday evening in the Legion rooms where plans were made for the annual Armistice Day dinner and program, which is a joint gathering of Auxiliary and Legion.

This was the first meeting of the post since the officers were installed recently. J. A. Mourer is the commander, with Dr. Reid Detar, vice commander, Verne Jones, financial officer and Warren Jones adjutant.

MEETING POSTPONED
The meeting of the Methodist Woman's Society of Christian Service, scheduled for Friday evening of this week, has been postponed until Wednesday evening of next week. This will be a urgent dinner meeting, with the men as well as the women invited. There will be missionary dramatization with women representing various countries in costume and a very complete collection of curios from Mexico shown. Miss Goldie Hill is the leader of this meeting.

HALLOWEEN PARTY
Members of the U. S. S. S. class of girls taught by Mrs. Floyd Conkling met Tuesday evening with Miss Janette Lucas for a masquerade party with games and refreshments suggesting the Halloween season.

BRIEFS
Mrs. Bessie Linquist of Titusville spent the weekend with her sister Mrs. Elsie Whitmore.
A. H. Bradley has been ill this week.

Mrs. Louis F. Hackmann, of Oneonta, N. Y., is spending a short time with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Charles Henry.

Miss Mary Clement who has been a guest of relatives in Youngsville for the past ten days returned Tuesday to her home in Rochester, N. Y.

Mrs. R. H. Knapp is now spending some time in Clinton, Mass., where her father is ill.

Russell

Russell, Oct. 29.—The neighbors of Fox Hill met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Van Cise Saturday evening for a Halloween social with over fifty in attendance. Games were played and a luncheon was served. Over $12 was taken in to be added to the flower fund.

The family of George Kelley gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Kelley, Lander road, Sunday in honor of their father's 80th birthday anniversary. A bounteous dinner was served with thirty-five in attendance. The following children and members of their families were present: Marvin, Leo, Clifford, Arthur Kelley, Mrs. Myrtle Pangborn of Russell, Paul Kelley of Garland and A. L. Kelley of Warren. Later in the afternoon Dr. Crain and family of North Warren were callers. Mr. Kelley received many gifts. Mr. and Mrs. Lester Hale of Youngsville, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Thompson accompanied Mrs. Howard Hale, who has been visiting here, back to her home at Niagara Falls Saturday returning home Sunday.

Mrs. Clara Wright is visiting friends at Youngsville.

The Boy Scouts spent the week end at Brown Run camp.

Mr. and Mrs. Pendleton and daughter of Wellsville, N. Y., spent the past few days with their daughter and husband Mr. and Mrs. Faulkner. On Saturday they visited in Bradford.

Federal Store Here Conducting Annual Trade-In Feature

Right now, the Federal Store is running its famous annual trade-in sale, which in the past has enabled this store to turn over many garments free to local charitable organizations for distribution to the needy.

During this sale, the Federal Store offers $5 for any old coat or for any other old garment, regardless of condition, with any apparel purchase of $25 or over, which includes a men's or ladies' coat or suit.

Here's an opportunity for folks to save a $5 bill on their new clothing purchase, at the same time, doing a good turn for the needy and unemployed of this community.

McKenney's Federal Store now prevails in the smartest new winter styles for men and women, which are available on the easiest possible credit terms.

He hopes that many people will take advantage of this great trade-in coat sale during the limited time it will be in effect.

This is the third of a series of hands played by Philadelphia experts whom the bridge players of the country will compete against at the national tournament to be held in Philadelphia the week of December 2.

BY WM. E. MCKENNEY
America's Card Authority

Probably the most successful bridge teacher in the country is Mrs. Olive Peterson, of Philadelphia, who will act as co-chairman of the forthcoming national tournament. She is already at work to establish new entry records for the women's events.

Discussing her methods and success as a bridge teacher, Mrs. Peterson said that after the game has been fully explained, experience is the best teacher, and for this reason she runs a great many duplicate games for her pupils. She herself is one of the outstanding women players of the country. The care she used in counting her tricks produced a top on today's hand in a recent tournament.

The opening heart lead was won with the ace, Mrs. Peterson discarding a spade. The diamond king and ace were cashed and a low diamond ruffed. A heart was ruffed, a spade played to the king and another heart ruffed.

Entering dummy again with the spade ace, declarer ruffed another heart, then ruffed her last diamond with dummy's queen of clubs. East was forced to under-ruff.

Now, whether a spade or heart was led from dummy, Mrs. Peterson could ruff with the ten-spot and cash the ace and king of clubs for the balance of the tricks, making seven-odd.

BODY OF LOCAL YOUNG WOMAN IS FOUND AT POLK

The body of Martha Taft, 24, of Warren, an inmate of the Polk State School who had been missing since October 16, was found floating on the surface of a small lake near the barn on the school farm about five o'clock yesterday afternoon. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Taft, 612 Lexington avenue.

Delbert Wolfe, an attendant discovered the body which was fully clothed and which bore no marks to indicate that there was violence of any kind in connection with the young woman's death. School officials said they were convinced the death was a case of suicide.

Immediately after the finding of the body, the state welfare department was notified by Assistant Superintendent D. Gale Walker, as was D. S. G. Foster, of Oil City, Venango county coroner who is investigating.

The young woman disappeared on October 16, and a thorough search was instituted by school officials. The family was notified but all efforts to locate the woman failed. Some clothing was found on the bank of the small lake two days after her disappearance but there was no trace of the woman. This clothing apparently had been taken from her room when she left the institution as the body was fully clothed when found yesterday.

The young woman was committed to the Polk school about ten years ago. Officials said she had run away from the institution on occasions previous to her disappearance October 16. One such disappearance occurred last April and another about a year ago but in each case she was apprehended and returned to the school after a short time it was stated.

Martha Emma Rose Taft was born April 28, 1916, the daughter of James H. and Alice Taft.

Besides her parents she leaves four sisters, Mrs. George Warren of Clarendon, Mrs. Wallace Warren and Miss Louise Taft of Warren; Miss Irene Taft of Jamestown, N. Y.; also her grandmother, Mrs. Rose Zeigler of Warren.

Removal is being made to the Lutz Funeral Home here and funeral plans will be announced later.

OBITUARY

MANY PRESENT AT FINAL RITES FOR DR. SMITH

MRS. STELLA J. KEELOR

Mrs. Stella J. Keelor, widow of Thomas T. Keelor, 1403 Pennsylvania avenue west, passed away at the Warren General Hospital at 11:10 o'clock today following a short illness of pneumonia.

Mrs. Keelor was born in Warren October 12, 1870, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George McKee, pioneer residents of the community. Excepting for several years residence in Kane, her entire life had been spent in Warren where she was held in high esteem by a host of friends who will regret to learn of her passing.

She is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Marjorie at home, son Donald P. Keelor, Pittsburgh, and sister Mrs. Elizabeth Leonard, of this city. She was a member of Trinity Memorial Episcopal church. She was preceded in death by her husband in 1917 and a daughter, Bernice in 1918.

Removal was made to the Lutz funeral home where friends may call. Services will be held at a time to be announced later.

Final rites for Dr. Monroe T. Smith, practicing physician for more than half a century and prominent member of the Warren County Medical Society, were held at 2:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon at the family home, 418 Pennsylvania avenue east.

The very largely attended service was conducted by Rev. E. P. Wroth, rector of Trinity Memorial Episcopal church, assisted by Rev. H. C. Warren, pastor of the First Presbyterian church.

Those who acted as bearers for commitment in the Oakland mausoleum were Drs. Porter, Douglas Smith, Harold Smith, Lester Wilson, Monroe Smith and John Swick.

Honorary bearers were Dr. O. S. Brown, Dr. E. S. Briggs, Dr. M. V. Ball, Dr. C. I. Frantz, Dr. E. S. Africa, Dr. Elizabeth Beaty, Dr. H. F. Clawson, Dr. R. L. Young, E. M. Hutchins, A. N. McCaughey, T. M. Greenlund and A. W. Eaton. Warren Dr. C. H. VerMyer, Russell Dr. I. G. Hyer, Clarendon.

Attending from away were the following: Mr. and Mrs. E. Ray Smith, Butler; Mr. and Mrs. H. Leon Smith, Miss Laurel Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Porter, Erie; Mrs. Ella Cooney, Mrs. Kate Wilson, Lester Wilson, Rising Sun; Mrs. Mabel Belden, Belden; Grace Stauffer, Miss Irene Rey, Niagara Falls; N. Y.; Mrs. Frances Osborne, Cleveland, O.; Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Smith, Salamanca; N. Y.; Douglas Smith, Midland, Mich.; Mrs. J. J. Lawson, Miss Hull, Kenneth Lawson, Girard; Mrs. James Connelly, Benjamin Connelly, Ludlow; Mrs. William Young, Titusville; Mrs. Mary Porter, Corry; Mr. and Mrs. John Logan, Enterprise; Arthur Van North, Marysville; Robert Maddy and Gale L. Smith, Washington, D. C.; William C. Curnutt, Richard Hausman, Sheffield; Mrs. Elizabeth Clinton, Pittsburgh; Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Anderson, Gilbert, Forsberg, Falconer; N. Y.; Mrs. Harriet Forsberg, Jamestown, N. Y.

East and West DO Meet

form the ethical credo of news gathering than any man in history. He first had the idea of finding some way to speed up the teaching of news when he was a child. Never forgetting his childhood ambition, he and his friend played by Eddie Albert, open a news agency and use pigeons to carry the news between towns, which have no telegraph. As years go on the Reuter's News Agency becomes more and more associated with dramatic and far-reaching events despite attempts to place obstacles in his path.

GALA HALLOWEEN SHOW AT THE COLUMBIA THEATRE TODAY AND FRIDAY

"I Love You Again"

A tune for the blues, rating a laugh a minute opens Wednesday, Thursday and Friday at the Columbia Theatre "I Love You Again" co-starring William Powell and Myrna Loy.

The film presenting a fast-moving laugh-packed series of situations deals with the plight of a man who suddenly recovers from an eight-year attack of amnesia and discovers that during that time he has acquired a new personality, a charming wife who is about to divorce him, a spotless reputation as the leader of a community called Habsville, a bank account and the manager's berth in a large pottery firm.

"Danger on Wheels"

Continuous action thrills, romance and comedy are the entertainment ingredients blended into Universals "Danger on Wheels" auto-racing story opening Wednesday, Thursday and Friday at the Columbia Theatre.

Co-starring Richard Arlen and Andy Devine, spectacular spills and crashes on the speedways are said to be highlights of the production. Arlen will be seen as a dare-devil speedster with Devine as his whimsical mechanical pal. Romance is provided by Arlen and Peggy Moran.

DR. WILLIAM HAY

Word has been received here that Dr. William Hay, formerly of Youngsville, passed away at 6:40 o'clock this morning at his home in Stroudsburg following a serious illness.

SIDNEY S. SPRAGUE

Sheffield, Oct. 31.—Sidney S. Sprague, of New Cumberland, a brother of Floyd Sprague, of Sheffield, died at noon Saturday in New Cumberland where for the past year and a half he had been an instructor at a Civilian Conservation Corps school for bakers and cooks.

Mr. Sprague's death followed an illness of about four years. He was a native of Livingston Manor, N. Y., born Sept. 25, 1882, to Frank and Nettie Hodge Sprague. As a young man he entered the U. S. Army and was in active service until about four years ago when placed on the retired list. A commissary department specialist with the Army he was recalled to active service several months ago to serve as instructor at the CCC school.

He was a member of the Chilli-cothe, O. lodge of Masons.

Surviving at his wife, the former Miss Velma Eochen, whom he married 23 years ago in Texas, two sisters, Mrs. Edna Conyer, of Painted Post, and Mrs. Carl Casperson, of Pittsburgh, his brother here and several nieces and nephews, including Mrs. George Zebest, of Warren.

Military rites for the precedent were held at New Cumberland after which the body was shipped to Corning, N. Y., where funeral services were conducted at 2 p. m. Tuesday.

Among those who attended the services in Corning were Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Sprague, Terence and Vincent Sprague of Sheffield, Matthew, Edward and Maurice Sprague, of Cleveland.

FELT LIKE KNIFE STICKING IN BACK

Mr. Swavery says pains often kept him away nights. Vendol acted as mild diuretic on kidneys, giving splendid relief.

—MR. F. H. SWAVERY of 1931 Pennsylvania Avenue, East, Warren, Pa., writes: "I have been troubled for some time with pains in my back and legs. I felt like a knife was sticking in my back. I was awakened at night by the pains and could not get back to sleep. I tried many remedies but nothing helped. I then read in the paper about Vendol and decided to try it. I took a few tablets and the pains went away. I am not troubled that way any more."

We don't say that all cases of backache pains in the arms, limbs back and sore stiff muscles will respond to Vendol but a few bottles helped this part in a big way, so if you suffer from the same troubles why not give Vendol a trial today and see for yourself just what it can do for you, too?

There is only one Vendol, and it comes in 8 sizes for your convenience. Larger bottles are the most economical. Sold at leading druggists, recommended especially by Miller's Cut Rate Drug Store.

REMODEL SUPER MARKET FOR 81ST ANNIVERSARY

In connection with the observance this week of the 81st anniversary of the Great Atlantic & Pacific Tea Company, the local A. & P. Super Market, at 239 Pennsylvania avenue, west, has been completely remodeled to provide better service for customers of the store, it was announced today.

Among the new features which have been added at the Super Market are the latest type produce display rack, which will contain daily-delivered produce; new candy display rack, up-to-date bakery rack and the latest type fish case which contains a complete assortment of seafoods.

The entire store has been redecorated and presents a much improved appearance. The departments have been rearranged to make shopping easier for the customers.

It was stated that the A. & P. Super Market management is appreciative of the patronage it has received in the past and will continue to provide the same high type service in the future.

The theme for the 81st anniversary of the A. & P. food stores is "Pioneers for budgeters—since 1859" according to G. Steele, company executive.

"We take our greatest pride in the fact that our constant striving for efficiency and lower retail prices has made it possible for millions of American families to enjoy beverages, vegetables, fruits, meats poultry, fish and dairy products that were once considered luxuries," he said.

It was pointed out that the company, starting with the sale of tea, coffee and spices, gradually expanded its line to include other

"The history of liberty is the history of the limitation of governmental power; not the increase of it. When we resist, therefore, the concentration of power, we are resisting the processes of death, because concentration of power is what always precedes the destruction of human liberties." These words were uttered by Woodrow Wilson in 1912.

So long as there are men in the world, gathered into groups or nations, there must be government to preserve order and balance in the society which has set it up, and so long as there is government in the world the eternal struggle will be to limit the power of governors, so that men may grow as individuals and not as slaves.

Today we can see more clearly than ever before the effects of concentration of power. Those effects are poverty and war. They are bound to follow even as they have followed every form of tyranny and despotism that has ever arisen in the world. In modern society the pace is quickened, the complexity of the modern economy makes regulation yield poverty more rapidly than it did in the days when man's main business was agriculture. Regulation and control of production can yield only scarcity and scarcity means poverty, wide-spread and complete. Then men begin to grumble, to be dissatisfied and the only recourse is an orgy of nationalism. The grumbling must be directed away from the rulers. The dissatisfied citizens must be made into an army to serve the state, and no grumbling allowed. This is the fate that overtook the ancient democracies. This is the course on which the modern dictatorships have embarked. Everywhere freedom is in surrender, in retreat or on the defensive against government. Everywhere the principle of parliamentary government is in decline. America, for all her greatness has not escaped. But in America the Constitution which limits absolutism in government still stands. It is still being defended against those who, in the guise of benefactors, would destroy it. It has weathered many crises in the past. The country was invaded and the capitol burned.

ed and still Americans did not find it necessary to yield their legislature and the courts to the judgment of one man. The American system rests upon the people, now as it has always rested. It is a hard responsibility, but then, the way of freedom is always hard.

American liberties are rooted in the constitution and the principle of rotation in office, which is the basis of representative government. The Constitution sets up the representative system and the two-term tradition enforces it, but the Constitution is meaningless unless it is used. When the executive power degrades the legislative principle and attempts to control the judicial system, then the Constitution becomes only a document of no value save as a curiosity, and the bill of rights is useless. No one can have his cake and eat it too. Americans can not have freedom unless they use it.

The doctrine of indispensability, set up as an excuse for the Third Term attempt, is as old as time. It is a cloak for the continuation and further centralization of power, the very danger that Woodrow Wilson and every sincere Democrat foresaw and fought against.

This year, as never before, the choice is truly up to the American people. It will not be explained on the ballot, but it is there. The choice is a Third Term or American liberty.

MR. LEWIS JOINS THE REDSKINS

The term "renegade" was not unknown among the frontier American settlements. It sometimes happened that a man lost caste, even in those rude communities. For one reason or another he became a pariah in his own home town, a pariah without honor in his own country, a man whom his neighbors came to regard with distrust and apprehension. When a man dropped to this low estate, it was not uncommon for him to slip away in the dark of the night, perhaps with a stolen rifle and powder horn, perhaps with a few belongings that he could beg, borrow, or steal. The community groceries. The bringing of fresh fruits and vegetables from the south to northern markets during winter months was one of the outstanding advancements, it was stated.

The wider distribution of quality foods is a direct result of the company's policy of reducing the price spread between producer and consumer, Mr. Steele said. A major factor in this elimination of in-between costs was A. & P.'s introduction in 1912 of the "economy store," which dispensed with delivery, premiums, telephone orders and other expense-producing items which raised costs to consumers, he said. More recently, he explained, the food chain has been a leader in development of the modern "super-market" which features self-service and has already proved itself a major contribution to the nation's retail economy.

heard of him no more until the next Indian attack, when they heard of him to their dismay; an apostate white man; a "white Indian," not respected by the Indians, but more viciously cruel than the worst of them, more atrociously barbarous in his warfare upon that white civilization against which he nourished an undying grudge. Such a one was Simon Girty. Such another one is John L. Lewis.

If Mr. Lewis expected that the announcement of his apostasy would roll like cannon thunder across the nation, he was badly mistaken. It was more like the barely audible noise of a popgun, even though uttered in that pseudo-Biblical oratorical style which is reminiscent of a fifth-rate revivalist preacher of the old shout school and a sixth-rate sham Shakespearean actor. The signs of his renegadeship have been multiplying for months. His sponsorship of the Wall Street candidate has been long expected, not only by the Roosevelt forces, but by his Labor associates. It marks the low-water mark in the decline of a great leader.

John L. Lewis has been steadily losing power among American Labor forces for several years. Ever since, following the 1936 campaign, he attempted to exact quid pro quo from the Roosevelt administration—ever since he attempted to force Roosevelt into accepting his demands on the basis of his support in that campaign, and was refused—ever since he publicly accused the President of failing to "pay back" in concessions the campaign contribution of his labor organization—John L. Lewis has nourished a bitter grudge against the President.

His attitude has not been popular among the rank and file, or even among the officialdom, of his C. I. O. He has seen his ranks steadily diminished by member groups which have withdrawn or gone over to the A. F. of L. The defections have been so numerous—the loss of the Lewis prestige so drastic—that he has been faced with the complete destruction of his power. And power to John L. Lewis is life. Thus he decided to risk all on one throw of the dice. That throw of the dice was the speech of October 25th. It is the typical dictator's attitude: the attitude of all or nothing; victory or death. When Lewis promises to resign as Chairman of the C. I. O. if Willie is not elected, we are reminded of the promise Hitler made to his generals when he invaded the Rhineland, that if the move failed he would commit suicide. We are reminded of the Commander of the Graf Spee who, having failed, was ordered from Berlin to kill himself—and did.

It is of such desperate motives that the present attitude of John L. Lewis is compounded. He has not only put himself out on a limb, he has already saved that limb in two.

PRAISES DRAFT

Pittsburgh, Oct. 31 (AP)—Harley J. Milton, one of those holding the first number drawn in the draft said he would not claim exemption although he is married. "I think it is a fine thing for the country," Milton, an employee of the city treasurer's office said. "I think the physical and mental training will be good."

It is reported that 41 per cent of all the cars and trucks in the nation are used by small town and farm communities.

THE ROAD TO SHANI LUN

by Rita Moffat Paxson

YESTERDAY: Lynn Britton has just been 'rescued' from the mounted band of Temu Darin by her dissolute half-brother Dick. Temu has been conducting Lynn across the Mongolian plain to a marriage with the Prince of Shani Lun, and partly because she distrusts Dick, and partly because she loves Temu, Lynn is half inclined to believe that she would be better off in Temu's hands—Prince or no Prince.

Chapter 30
Sherdock Again

DICK sat down on a box beside the head of Lynn's pallet. "As I wrote you I managed to slip into Delun and interview the Prince last year. I'd been running arms across the desert then, but I went to him seeking commercial concessions—had some idea of becoming respectable, I suppose."

He paused and looked at her. "But I couldn't interest the Prince in anything except you." He laughed heartily and bent forward, hanging his hands between his knees. "And was he crazy for you, Lynn, and extremely honorable about it, he thought. We drew up a marriage settlement contract in regal style, the European way, as if I, as head of the family, had the right to dispose of your hand."

"I explained that I needed a little cash, I always seem to be needing a little cash, and he gave me my share of the settlement in advance. I had told him that occasionally the great families of America arrange the marriages of the daughters as the French do."

Lynn lay back and laced her trembling fingers behind her head while he stood and looked at her for a minute. "But, kid, I never intended to let him marry you—or if he did marry you, to keep you."

He began his pacing again. "The first plan was for Sherdock and me to bring you to Watch Tower Wells where the Prince would meet you by airplane. Sachto would ambush the camp that night, and with the Prince dead we'd have things our own way. But Temu spoiled that by appearing in Pai Shu."

Lynn forced herself to relax the tension of her laced fingers. "What were your plans in regard to Temu?"

Dick dropped down on a pile of sheepskins. "We'd expected Temu to pilot the Prince to Watch Tower Wells where we could get rid of them both at the same time."

She flinched; he observed it. "You needn't mind; they're nothing but vermin," he added, "ruined our revised plans by escaping and drawing Temu after you. However, Sachto's men are assembling a band of fighters to meet him with cannon ball and grenade the minute he gets inside the walls of the garrison of the border city of Dorchi."

Lynn fought for composure before she asked, "Isn't the Prince aware of any of this?"

Dick shrugged and lit a cigarette. "I don't know. He and Sherdock seem to have some means of communication like—well like mental telepathy. They have certain powers developed that we Westerners don't know anything about, but when their time comes they die like the rest of us. Perhaps by now the Prince knows we have captured the old boy though it won't do him any good."

"Why? Is the Prince already your prisoner?"

"We've got him where we can put our hands on him."

"Then is Temu the only one you have a fear now? Would he be powerful enough to keep the Duke of Sachto from seizing power?"

The Wise Man

"MAYBE—if he were inside the country instead of out. In the morning you'll meet the Duke, and along with Chin Pak, one of Temu's men who has deserted to us. . . . Now your tent should be ready." He stood up and she rose and followed him out.

The next morning Lynn met the Duke of Sachto, a thin, young Mongol with a weak chin and sad, childlike eyes that were going blind. He bowed in reverence to the Goddess Tara. She soon observed that he was superstitiously afraid of the captive priest, Sherdock Fuyeh, who sat on a rug inside his open tent with a Chinese guard nearby.

Lynn went to the monk and sat down at his side. The binding on his ankles and wrists, she saw, were not severe.

"Are you angry at me—us, Sherdock?" she asked.

He turned and looked at her, a twinkle threatening to sparkle in his wise, old eyes. "Things work themselves out," he said.

"I'll do my best to see that no physical harm comes to you," she promised, and asked with a smile, "Aren't you a little bit sorry now that you made me a goddess?"

He looked away towards the purple horizon. "You were born a goddess, my dear, I had nothing to do with it."

"Then if we should lose our cause, you will not unmake me?" she teased gently.

"You personally will not lose my dear. And you will not harm my people, your people. Destiny is wise."

"Perhaps with me," she agreed.

PARTY IS HELD BY MEMBERS OF SCOUT TROOP 12

Troop 12 Boy Scouts enjoyed an old-fashioned masquerade party last evening at 1st Lutheran parish house. Simultaneously a special meeting of the troop committee convened in extraordinary session.

The Halloween party arrangements were in charge of the Eagle Patrol. This committee included: Bill Rieder, Gail Baiker, Gene Schuler, Orlo Rieder, Dick Yeagle, Jim Eaton and Byron Mavrelis. Refreshments included traditional apple cider and donuts.

The special session of the troop committee and Washington class representatives presided over by chairman Charles Cable adopted plans stepping up the leadership work of the troop and formally enlisted the committee and the troop in the "Call to all Americans" extended by the Citizenship Education Service to 16 national organizations, subscribing to the call of Chief Scout Executive James E. West.

Troop committeemen were assigned to the various patrols of Troop 12 to act as councilors to two advanced patrols under the supervision of Ivar Larson, assistant Scoutmaster who assigned William Highhouse to the senior patrol and Lloyd and Floyd Rapp to the Eagle patrol. To the remaining three patrols under Charles Cable's supervision as troop committee chairman, the following: Bob White patrol, Emil Schwab, Beaver patrol, Franklin R. Hoff; Panther patrol, J. L. Billstone. Emil Schwab as camping chairman will represent troop 12 at a meeting of the representatives of all troops in the county council Friday at room 201, Warren National Bank building. Alfred Lauffenberger was chosen to continue as finance chairman. Warren Fehlman and Franklin Hoff as co-chairmen on advance. Claude King was continued as chairman of transportation. Leo Gleese is scoutmaster of Troop 12.

Elton Davis represented the county council at the meeting and conducted the Board of Review, at which Scout Rowell Hoff advanced to second class rank.

The following members of troop committee were present: Charles Cable, chairman, Claude King, Warren Fehlman, William Highhouse, Ronald Stover, Lloyd Rapp, J. L. Billstone, Floyd Rapp, Franklin Hoff, Martin Wallin, and Emil Schwab.

Plane Proposal Is Discussed By GOP Nominee

(From Page One)

American industry, can do more than Franklin Roosevelt can?

"Have you any doubt that Wendell Willkie, with the confidence of American labor, can do more than Franklin Roosevelt can to bring about peace and keep us off this road of stagnation?"

Willkie devoted further parts of his talk to a discussion of President Roosevelt's address in Boston last night.

When he said he had heard Mr. Roosevelt's speech by radio, there was booing from the crowd at the mention of the president.

"Don't trifles with a great name," the candidate said.

"I couldn't decide," Willkie added, "whether he was running against Bruce Barton for senator in New York or against Joe Martin for congress up in Massachusetts."

Willkie said that if the issue in the campaign was whether Mr. Roosevelt "has a better type of campaign manager than I have, I would be glad to have the issue determined by the American people."

"If it's Joe Martin against Boss Flynn, the vote will be 99 to 1," he said with a smile.

Willkie's train remained overnight in Baltimore for a short run to Wilmington, Del., during the morning. Also on the day's schedule were talks in Chester, Pa., Trenton, Plainsboro and Camden, N. J.

Tomorrow he speaks at New Brunswick and Elizabeth, N. J., and on Saturday he goes to New York for a major address in Madison Square Garden.

Suicide Closes Murder Probe At Shippensburg

said Coroner S. D. Shull of adjoining Franklin county.

The machine in which Rebok apparently left Shippensburg nearly two weeks ago was recovered from a Pittsburgh parking lot.

Discovery of the telltale body weakened excitement in this college town of 4,000 people, who had been stirred by the Hoover slaying—first murder here in 38 years.

State police broadcasts at first had described Rebok as "missing," then as "wanted for murder." On Tuesday, the district attorney disclosed, a murder warrant was issued.

The prosecutor reported he had evidence of a $500 discrepancy in the teller's handling of the Hoover's accounts.

Harrigan also said Rebok had access to a pistol, found in the bank, from which one bullet had been shot, and which was shown by ballistic tests to have fired a slug into Hoover's cranium.

The Trevenens and the Ritchies, tied for third place in the Conewango Club circuit, stayed that way last night by splitting four points with Bob's team taking the second game and total pins . . . Harry Conarro was high for the Trevenens and Doc Robertson led the Ritchies with 528 and 513, respectively . . . The Allens picked themselves up from the cellar floor and stepped nearer the first division by sweeping a match with the Lutz aggression . . . Raleigh Van Tassel and Johnny Allen both got into honor roll figures with 213 and 212, the former turning in high total for the evening . . . 363 . . . Captain Lutz tried to show his lieutenant the way by turning in 515, but . . .

Britain's Plea Supported
 By Chief Executive

(From Page One)

"orchid," he added, Martin must be slated for a cabinet post.

Mr. Roosevelt said the Republican chairman had "voted against every single one of the farm measures recommended by this administration."

These are credited against the state's quota for the draft.

Governor James recently advanced preparations for induction of conscripts, by appointing one legal advisor for each of the state's 422 local draft boards. The advisors will protect legal rights of draftees.

HALLOWEEN CARD PARTY SUCCESSFUL

There were 225 persons in attendance at the Halloween card party held Wednesday evening at the Holy Redeemer church hall.

The seasonal decorations were carried out throughout the hall, adding much to the party atmosphere.

Awards in cards went to the following: Contract bridge, Mrs. Carl Hultberg and Robert Wyckoff, of Clarendon, high; Mrs. Alice Russell, second. Auction bridge, Mrs. Robert Shine and Frank J. Scallise, high; Mrs. Mary McCracken and Robert Shine, second.

Five hundred, Bertha Moll and J. H. Scallise, Jr., high; Rose Fusareri, of Clarendon, and William Shine, of Kinzua, second. Special prizes went to Philip B. Reynolds and Dr. Guinza.

All members of the committee for the party have been asked by the chairman, Mrs. Herman NeSmith, to be at the church hall next Thursday evening, November 7, at 6:30 o'clock for a tureen dinner.

EASTERN STARS HONOR OFFICIAL
 Youngsville, Oct. 31—District Deputy Edna C. Watt, of Meadville, who paid an official inspection to the local chapter, Order of Eastern Star, at its last meeting, was complimented with a delightful banquet preceding the business session.

Halloween decorations were artistically carried out and the honored guests, Mrs. Watt and Mrs. Edna Peters, were given corsages.

The latter is a grand chapter representative in the state of New York.

Credit for the fine arrangements goes to Mrs. Cleo Mead, chairman; Mrs. Amanda McConna, Mrs. Isabel Clark, Miss Mildred Mead and Miss Violet Polard.

A number of the local members are attending an Eastern Star meeting being held in Meadville today.

ATTENDING OPENING OF NEW RILEY SHOW
 Miss Gertrude See, 611 Fourth avenue, left last evening for New York City, where she will attend the New York opening of Lawrence Riley's new play, "Return Engagement," which has its premier tonight at the Golden Theatre. Mr. Riley is Miss See's nephew.
